PLAIN VELVETS.

Having bought large quantities of PLAIN VELVETS previous to the advance in those goods we are enabled to offer them at lower prices than they can be duplicated at to-day. Our assortment of qualities and shades is the most complete ever displayed. All ladies are interested in these regal fabrics, and as it is quite if settled thing that Velvets are to be all the rage this season, those win can should purchase early to secure advantage of the prices we offer and choice of colors.

EMBOSSED VELVETS.

In these goods our prices are lower than the lowest, and our competitors are very much "de tected" in not being enabled to sell them at the prices at which we sell them. We never like to "delect" our competitors, but we must give our customers benefit of our low purchases. A new hae of

PROGRESS IN POLITICS.

MR. MADDOX DECLINES TO OBEY MAHONE AND BRADY.

Primary Preparations - Staples, Tucker, and Conrad to Speak Here-Hanover Meeting.

The Democratic primary election in this city will be held Thursday to nominate four candidates for the House of Delegates. We do not elect senators this year—Sena-tors H. A. Atkinson, Jr., and William Lovenstein were elected in 1881 for four years. The poils will be open from sunrise to sunset at all the usual places of voting in the city, and as near as possible the elec-tion will be made to conform to an election held under authority of law. The voting will be by secret ballot. The judges and clerks will be appointed by the City Com-

Since to follow this advice will save the candidates a good deal of money, and to reject it will lose them both votes and money, it can searcely be doubted that it will be followed.

CANDIDATES. The candidates who have so far announced themselves are Messrs. Archer Anderson.

Joseph Christian, John A. Curtis, T. Wiley Davis, James N. Dunlop, Thomas J. Evans.

M. L. Spetswood,
These names will be printed on the ticket in alphabetical order, and the voter

The committee night before last referred the whole subject to a sub-committee for report, and the idea seemed to be to have the three gentlemen to speak at one meeting. No arrangements as to that will, however, be made without consultation with them; but really it seems a pity to attempt to crowd them all into two hours' time.

after dinner. The Brunswick stew, prepared under the direction of Mr. John S. Taylor and Mr. Chas. H. Mallory, was good enough to satisfy the palate of the most fastidious epicure, and was of the greatest abundance. There were other excellent dishes.

After an hour devoted to the wants of the inner man and to social chart President Doswell again called the meeting to order and introduced Mr. Henry T. Wiekham, who informed the audience that his father was suffering from a temporary indisposition, which prevented his aftendance, but he bore from him his congratulations upon the happy progress of the canvass, and he stated that the General said, with a continuance of the efforts new being made by his supporters and friends, that he would dearry his district by a large majority. Mr. Wickham then, in a rapid manner, ran over some of the acts of usurpation and tyranny of the would be autoerated Virginia.

Mr. Meddey has neontion of supporters entatives present at Powhatan Courthouse on the 10th day of August last; and secondly, publicly and explicitly to the easemblage of gentlemen who nominated some nominated by the readidate prior to any action on their part in regard to yourself or any other candidate. The propositions thus severally made to both classes of gentlemen, acting, as they regarded themselves, as an official party authority, were rejected. Believing, after more than a month of active canvass over the entire district, that the integrity and success of the party will be secured and maintained by the rules of right and justice which prevail in the hearts of the people, and further, that I can and will carry the district, I can, with due respect, only regard your suggestions as impracticable.
